Turin, July 3. N. S.

MOnsieur Phelippeaux arrived here some days ago from France with the Character of Ambassador Extraordinary; He has had a Private Audience of the Duke of Savoy, and still continues incognito. The Duke intends shortly to go to his House at the Venerie, where he will spend the remaining part of the Summer Season. One Gazano, an Inhabitant of Mondovi, who was formerly Banished from the Duke of Savoy's Dominions for several Crimes, returned lately to Mondovi, and perswaded 800 of the Inhabitants to take up Arms against their Prince; but two Regiments of Foot were sent thither, who soon dispersed them.

Milan, July 7. The Prince of Vaudemont has received a Commission from the King of Spain, to be Governor-General of this Dutchy for 3 years longer; Upon which he has been Complimented by the Senate, the several Courts of Justice, and other Persons of Quality. He intends to go in a day or two to Final to view the Fortifications of that Place, and give Orders for the necessary Repairs to be made there. They write from Mantua, that the Duke and Dutchess of Parma had passed by there going to St. Maurice in Switzerland to use the Waters of that Place, and that they were splendidly entertained by the Duke of Mantua, who ordered the Marquis de Beretta, his Secretary, to conduct them in their Journey through his Territories.

Mittaw, July 12. The Saxon Infantry (which came by Sea to Memel) arrived the 11th Instant with several Pieces of Cannon in their Camp near Riga; They will need some time to refresh themselves after so hard a March as they have had. The King of Poland is expected here the 15th Instant. The Saxons talk of repassing the Dwina; But the Swedes have so well fortified Lutzenholme, the only Place where they can go over the River, that their Passage will be very difficult.

Warsaw, July 8. The King of Poland continues his Journey to Livonia through Lithuania, as well to endeavour to reconcile the Differences between the Houses of Sapieha and Ogintky, as to prevail with the Great General and Nobility of that Dutchy to assist him with a greater number of Forces in his Enterprize against the Swedes in Livonia. The Sieur Beuchling (who is made Great Chancellor of Saxony upon the Resignation of the Prince of Saxe-Zeits Bishop of Raab) went this day to Dresden, with Orders to send a considerable Sum of Money to Livonia for the Service of the Saxon Forces. Prince Sapieha, second Son to the Great General of Lithuania, is made a Lieutenant-General, and 'tis said he is ordered by the King to go on some Commission to the Imperial Court. Monsieur Dutteron, Envoy from France, and Major-General Tramp, Envoy from the King of Denmark, are gone to attend the King. The Envoy from the Cham of Tartary is returned home. Major-General Denhoff has taken a Review of 400 Men he lately raised in and about this City, and they are to march in few days to the Camp in Livonia. The Duke de Croy, with the Officers he has brought with him from Vienna, continue here, expecting divers other Officers from Germany, after whose arrival they will go together to the Saxon Army.

Copenhagen, July 20. The Swedish Fleet having with much difficulty passed the Flats between the Isle of Saltholm and the Coast of Schonen, they joined the English and Dutch Squadrons near Landscroon, and anchored in a Line between that Place and the Isle of Ween; And they are since come nearer to the Danish Fleet, which continues in our Road. The English and Dutch lie now at Anchor at a little distance from the Swedes. The 4000 Men expected from Norway are arrived.

Vienna, July 14. The Emperor's Journey to Newstat is put off till the middle of the next Month, about which time the Elector Palatine is expected at the Imperial Court. The Duke of Pareli, Ambassador from Spain, has had a Private Audience of the Emperor, and is preparing for his Publick Entry and Audience.

Francfort, July 22. The Elector Palatine is come to Manheim, where he took a Review of his Forces that are drawn together near that Place, and he intends to be to morrow at Heydelberg, and in few days to continue his Journey to the Imperial Court. He had an Interview at Worms with the Great Master of the Teutonick Order, his Brother. Monsieur d'Ibberville, Envoy from France, having performed his Commission to the Elector of Triers and the Elector Palatine, is returned to Mentz.

Cell, July 21. The Saxon Troops lately put into the Service of Denmark, having advanced on the 18th Instant within a small distance of this Place, they put the Neighbouring Country under Contribution, ordering them to pay the same in 8 hours on pain of Military Execution; But before this time was expired, they received Advice that the Troops of Hanover and Cell were drawn together and marching towards them, whereupon they immediately retired, and attempted to pass through the Territories of the Duke of Wolfembuttel, but were refused Passage. This put the Saxons under great Consternation, who rather expected that the Troops of Wolfembuttel would have joined them; So they retired by the way of Breitstadt and Gersdorf, and are marching back to Saxony in much disorder. The Country People have taken about 40 of the Saxons, and killed about 60; The Forces of Lunenburgh march after the Saxons, but the latter have got so far before them by the great hast they have made, that the Lunenburghers will not be able to get up with them. In the mean time General Ohr, who Commands the Forces of Lunenburgh, has sent an Officer to the Duke of Wolfembuttel, to return him thanks for his Friendship to the Elector of Hanover and the Duke of Cell on this occasion.
